Suzanne Chenault speaks on... the challenges of charging rape

The transcript of the highlight begins on the following page.

00:00 It's more difficult perhaps to prove rape because you need to have the wit-, the victims or the, or the witnesses be survivors.

00:16 How many of those who were raped survived? And how many of those who survived given the cultural taboo in the Rwandan society are willing to testify? What do they get from testifying?
